

Jack Chang – DJ History (1997 to present) – resident DJ for Hustlaball, Naughty Party, Rapido, Fresh

Trained in classical music for eleven years, Jack Chang first took to the decks at the Freedom Café, London. Following a successful year there, Jack then moved on to Love Muscle, at the Fridge nightclub. He took up residency on the main floor of UP (Underground Party) at the Rhythm Factory and rocked London's East-End with the sound of underground house. Following a successful two years, he then appeared at the notorious FIST at Imperial Gardens in the tribal room. Seamlessly blending sounds from across Europe, the US and Asia, a more intense, hypnotic, tribal sound inspired by DJs such as Chus & Ceballos, Deep Dish and DJ Vibe began to emerge, infused with his own heritage.

Word spread quickly, and in the last three years, Jack has become renowned on the international DJ circuit with his unique blend of Latin/Asian tribal house. 2003 saw his debut in the US at Palm Springs for the Hustlaball Pool Party and his European debut in Germany at Folsom Europe. Later that year Berlin saw Jack's return for Hustlaball at the infamous KitKat Club. The European circuit quickly took up interest and soon followed his appearance at the renowned Project-X party in Berlin in 2004.

He rocked Berlin again at Folsom Europe in 2005 after tearing up the 2004 event. Last year also saw more international appearances including CSD Berlin, The Leather-Weekend, Hamburg, Hustlaball (Berlin and Las Vegas) and Leatherpride, Amsterdam. 2006 will see him in Berlin for Folsom Europe for a third year!
